

Name:		Job Title:	Hose Assembly Technician – Hydraulics Hose
Start Date:	As per contract	Reporting to:	Workshop Supervisor

Purpose of Job (Hydraulics Hose)

A key role within the company to support our oil and gas operations, the hose assembly technician is responsible for assembling and testing hydraulic hoses to ensure they are fit for purpose to meet the high standards set by the company. This position provides further career and development prospects with opportunities to become part of our offshore crew.

Key Areas of Responsibility

- To follow and comply with all safety rules and regulations in accordance with the organisation’s Safety Manual System, at all times.
- To ensure that all tasks carried out are as per supervisor’s written and verbal instructions.
- To carry out all work to client specification.
- To ensure that all tasks carried out meet company QMS procedures.
- To be fully aware of component compatibility and competent in the use and knowledge of our products.
- To be able to identify and use appropriate fittings for fitting to specified hoses, as per customer specification.
- To carry out assemblies using a variety of hoses for industrial, offshore and hydraulic purposes.
- To be able to perform low and high pressure testing procedures.
- To understand the procedures involved when testing to higher pressures and its associated safety critical aspects.
- To be able to identify and use all types of hoses for the purpose specified by the customer order.
- To carry out all assembly techniques as per supplier or in-house procedures.
- To be familiar with all our supplied fittings and their use.
- To advise and train, trainees / adhoc labour when and if required to do so by Workshop Supervisor.
- To work off site as and when required.
- To be aware of environmental issues associated with workshop procedures.
- To have the ability to operate all hose assembly machinery and equipment.
- To ensure that work areas are maintained clean and hazard free at all times.
- To report any safety defects to workshop supervisor immediately.
- To actively contribute to the overall team activities and promote good working practices.
- To comply with 1st Hose personnel procedures at all times.
- To be flexible in providing cover for other areas within the workshop as and when required, especially to cover absence or holidays.
- To commit to continuous improvement and development.
- To work overtime if requested to ensure our organisation or client deadlines are met.

Skills and Training Competences:

- Ability to work within strict standards and procedures.
- Ability to understand and follow instructions.
- Good communications skills.
- Ability and aptitude to learn.
- Flexible and adaptable.
- Demonstrate a positive “can do” approach to work.
- Ability to function well within a team environment.
- Adhere to company Quality, Health, Safety policies.
- Customer and Quality Focus.

The above description will be continually reviewed and updated as necessary